WELCOME to the Egmont New Titles Catalogue for 2018

A big thank you to all our partners for working with Egmont to fulfil our mission to make every child a proud reader. We’ve had a fantastic 2017, with successes across all genres, including the ever popular Mr. Men and Little Miss, My Little Pony - a newcomer to the Egmont stable, The Magic Misfits from Neil Patrick Harris, plus the classic The One Hundred and One Dalmatians, adapted by Peter Bently and illustrated by Steven Lenton, to name but a few.

The 2018 portfolio has something for all 14 million adults that buy children’s books annually. It is broad, inclusive, commercial and carefully curated to ensure all gift buyers, books buyers and readers are catered for.

Fiction

The YA market has witnessed growth in a challenging climate (+0.1% to £22 million value YTD*), and to capitalise on this, Egmont is proud to introduce some fantastic new titles that tap into the most popular YA trends. We’re thrilled to be releasing The Exact Opposite of Okay (page 33), a hilarious yet thought-provoking comedy from Laura Dean about female empowerment, which has already garnered rave early reviews. We also have Restore Me, from best-selling U.S. author Tahereh Mafi (page 47), along with her backlist title Shatter Me, being published in the UK for the first time. The series has been described as ‘X-Men meets The Hundredyard’s Tale’ (who would dare miss it?). The Jane Doe Chronicles (page 65) is a phenomenon new action-adventure (think Northern Lights meets Stranger Things), a truly memorable launch for upper middle-grade readers. In the Mouth of The Wolf from Michael Morpurgo is a jewel in the fiction crown, and following a stellar debut launch, the second instalment of Amelia Fang and the Unicorn Lords is bang on trend, featuring vampires and unicorns (page 38).

Brands and Licensing

Egmont re-defined gaming publishing with the official Minecraft Hardbacks and in 2018 we will launch the phenomenon that is Roblox (page 6). This monster sized gaming brand has over 56 Million monthly players and 335 million game sign-ups since inception. We will also continue to feed the insatiable appetite of Minecraft fans, with new guides throughout the year and the excitement of Star Wars will continue into 2018 beyond Star Wars: The Last Jedi (page 6). At the younger end, there are more exciting new titles planned for our evergreen classics, Mr. Men and Little Miss, Winnie-the-Pooh and My Little Pony - a newcomer to the Egmont stable. The Magic Misfits from Neil Patrick Harris, plus the classic The One Hundred and One Dalmatians, adapted by Peter Bently and illustrated by Steven Lenton, to name but a few.

Children’s non-fiction is in growth (+6.5% to £30 million value YTD*) and Egmont continues to invest in high quality and innovative titles like Lifesize by Sophie Henn (page 70), a must-have read for any parent with preschoolers, which takes a closer look at the size of animals. Plus Atlas of Football is perfectly timed for the sports event of the year - The World Cup.

Finally, from Julia Donaldson we have the first Spinderella book and plush set and a Night Monkey, Day Monkey book and magnet set (pages 74 & 75), the perfect gift for any young child.

We wish you all a very successful trading year with our titles. If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact your Sales Account Manager or drop me a line at igilmore@euk.egmont.com

DID YOU KNOW?

MAGAZINES

- Egmont is the No. 1 children’s magazine publisher in the UK for pre-school, primary boys and girls and pre-teens. We have over 20 magazines, selling over 1 million copies a month, and are the home of big brands including Thomas the Tank Engine, Disney, Barbie, Star Wars, Paw Patrol, Toxic and Go Girl.

ETHICAL PUBLISHING

- Egmont Publishing uses paper from sustainable sources, and our high safety standards guarantee that our products are always safe for young people. We only work with suppliers who conform to our strict ethical code of conduct.

CONSUMER INSIGHT

- Our consumer insight research programme puts children, and their parents, at the heart of our publishing. Through a range of exciting studies we focus on truly understanding children’s development and what engages, excites and motivates them to read.
- We are particularly interested in children’s reading for pleasure, and in appreciating why it thrives in some families while in others it struggles. We investigate the impact of the digital world, family life, school and learning to read, to understand how these can all help (as well as hinder) children’s reading for pleasure.
- Our insights are fed into our strategy, publishing, sales and marketing, with the goal of inspiring all children to read. We aim to offer something for every type of reader from the reluctant to the occasional to the eager, to help all children become proud readers.

THE MR. MEN AND LITTLE MISS HAVE BEEN DELIGHTING CHILDREN FOR GENERATIONS WITH THEIR CHARMING AND FUNNY ANTICS. BOLD ILLUSTRATIONS AND FUNNY STORIES MAKE MR. MEN AND LITTLE MISS THE PERFECT STORY TIME EXPERIENCE FOR CHILDREN AGED TWO UP. HAVE YOU MET THEM ALL?

It all started with a tickle. Roger Hargreaves’ son Adam asked him what a tickle looked like. In response, Roger drew a small orange man with extraordinarily long arms that could reach anywhere and tickle anyone. Mr Tickle, the first of the Mr Men, was born. Mr Tickle was soon joined by Mr Greedy, Mr Happy, Mr Nosey, Mr Sneeze and Mr Bump. The books were an instant hit and Roger went on to create many more Mr Men and Little Miss characters.

‘FUNNY, UNAPOLOGETIC AND SHAMELESS IN THE BEST POSSIBLE WAY. THIS IS A YA HEROINE (AND A BOOK) THAT YOU’VE NEVER SEEN BEFORE’

Louise O’Neill, author of * Asking for It*

‘THIS BOOK WILL MAKE YOU LAUGH OUT LOUD, NO IN AGREEMENT, CRINGE WITH RECOGNITION, AND STAND UP AND CHEER, I ADORED IT’

Katherine Webber, author of Wing Jones
A STUNNING NEW NOVEL IN VERSE THAT READS LIKE A RAP SONG, THIS IS THE HATE U GIVE MEETS ONE.

Xiomara has always kept her words to herself. When it comes to standing her ground in her Harlem neighbourhood, she lets her fists and her fierceness do the talking.

But X has secrets – her feelings for a boy in her bio class, and the notebook full of poems that she keeps under her bed. And a slam poetry club that will pull those secrets into the spotlight.

Because in spite of a world that might not want to hear her, Xiomara refuses to stay silent.

- Elizabeth Acevedo is an award-winning slam poet who has been profiled in Teen Vogue
- A diverse, authentic voice that is under-represented in YA fiction

Jane Doe and her father arrived on the steps of the Manor – the place at the very heart of the island of Bluehaven and the entrance to a dangerous labyrinth connecting it to Otherworlds – fifteen years ago. That was the same night the earthquakes started; the night the Manor closed its doors indefinitely. Perhaps it’s not surprising, then, that the people of Bluehaven fear and despise Jane and her silent, troubled father, John.

When the strongest quake yet strikes and John disappears into the Manor, Jane is set on a journey through the in-between place inside its doors to find her father and save her world — and perhaps all worlds. And along the way to uncover the greatest mystery of all: who she really is.

Mouse and her friends face the final battle to defeat Stag’s evil forces and save Trianukka in the epic, thrilling conclusion to Sarah Driver’s middle grade fantasy trilogy.

• An epic coming-of-age middle-grade trilogy, set in a world of tribes, beast and magic, perfect for fans of Philip Pullman, Abi Elphinstone and Katherine Rundell

• Memorable characters, a rich world and a thrilling adventure full of heart

• Stunning, must-have package: foiled cover, high-quality paper and beautiful interior decorations

Also available in the series:

‘THE HUNTRESS: SEA IS A HEART-THUMPINGLY BRILLIANT ADVENTURE, FAVER MEETS PULLMAN, A REAL GEM.’
Abi Elphinstone, author of The Dreamsnatcher and The Shadow Keeper

‘DRIVER’S PROSE TAKES FLIGHT IN THE HUNTRESS: SKY. EXCITING, GRIPPING AND FULL OF HEART’

NEW NETFLIX TIE-IN COVERS BRINGING LEMONY SNICKET’S MISERY AND MISFORTUNE TO A BRAND NEW READERSHIP.

Dear Reader,

There is nothing to be found in Lemony Snicket’s A Series of Unfortunate Events but misery and despair. You still have time to choose another international best-selling series to read. But if you insist on discovering the unpleasant adventures of the Baudelaire orphans, then proceed with caution . . .

In The Bad Beginning, the siblings encounter a greedy and repulsive villain, itchy clothing, a disastrous fire, a plot to steal their fortune and cold porridge for breakfast.

• Now a major Netflix series starring Neil Patrick Harris
• Netflix has commissioned two further series, covering all thirteen books

THE BAD BEGINNING

In The Reptile Room the siblings endure a car accident, a terrible smell, a deadly serpent, a long knife, a brass reading lamp, and the re-appearance of a person they’d hoped never to see again.

THE REPTILE ROOM

In The Wide Window the siblings encounter a hurricane, a signalling device, hungry leeches, cold cucumber soup, a horrible villain and a doll named Pretty Penny.

THE WIDE WINDOW

In The Miserable Mill the siblings encounter a giant pincher machine, a bad casserole, a man with a cloud of smoke where his head should be, a hypnotist, a terrible accident and coupons.

THE MISERABLE MILL

Best friends Lil and Verne team up for one last time in a final battle against the ancient forces of darkness attacking their home town.

• Fast-paced, nail-biting and just the right side of scary, this is perfect for fans who want a new Harry Potter or Spook’s Apprentice
• Famed for his Deptford Mice and Whitby Witches series, Robin Jarvis combines spooky and atmospheric writing with humour and an accessible style that will draw in plenty of new fans

‘JARVIS IS A MASTER OF SUSPENSE AND WIT’
The Times
